

share of Sadie Spurrier which will be ultimately turned over to Coral Spurrier Kling, the beneficiary or residuary legatee named in the will of Sadie E. Spurrier. We filed a petition in the Orphans' Court asking that we might become parties plaintiff in this cause so that this entire property could be sold as a whole, because all we could have sold as Executors would have been the undivided one-half interest, and that, in our opinion, would have caused a sacrifice in the interest of Coral Spurrier Kling under the will of Sadie E. Spurrier.

I look at Exhibit Order filed in this cause, and it is a copy of the petition and the order passed by the Orphans' Court.

Theresa Spurrier and Sadie E. Spurrier were maiden ladies, neither of them ever having married, but they left the following heirs-at-law who are entitled to interests in a share in Aunt Theresa's estate:

A brother, Jacob M. L. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Annie Spurrier, both of whom are adults and reside in Frederick County, Maryland.

A brother, Alvin Taylor A. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Catherine A. Spurrier, both of whom are adults and reside in Frederick County, Maryland.

The children and heirs at law of Charles F. A. Spurrier, deceased, whose wife is dead, and who predeceased both Theresa A. M. Spurrier and Sadie E. Spurrier, intestate, to-wit: A daughter, Ethel Spurrier Dinterman, whose husband's name is Alvie Dinterman, and Floy Diller Spurrier Filler, widow, all of whom are adults and reside in Frederick County, Maryland.

The widow, children and heirs at law of a deceased brother, John E. C. Spurrier, who died intestate since the death of Theresa A. M. Spurrier, leaving a widow and the following children, to-wit: Juliet Maynard Spurrier, widow, a son, ^{myself} Myrtle M. Spurrier, and my wife's name is Sadie B. Spurrier; a son, Sterling E.